

Please check regularly whether the dog harness fits well and is correctly adjusted to the size of your dog!

In order to choose the right size dog harness, it is essential to correctly determine the dimensions. The dog's chest circumference is measured four finger-widths behind the front legs for sizes 0, 1, 2, 3 and 4, or two finger-widths behind the front legs for sizes Baby1 and Baby2.

Measure the chest circumference where you want the strap to fit correctly. Choosing the right size ensures maximum freedom of movement while protecting your neck and shoulders.
